DATA & INFORMATION:

As a member of Corlinc and/or a member of any Corlinc Community, you may follow topics of interest contained either in the Communities or within the Forums and Blogs. You may also create online relationships, create searches, build an eCommerce store, aggregate social media feeds, set up events, upload documents and/or media, interact with multiple organizations, designate strategic partnerships, and transmit information through multiple available channels. This information is collected to determine the preferences of our Members and facilitate personalization for future use. Third parties do not have access to the Platform to collect personally identifiable information regarding a user's online activities over time and across different websites.

We may collect data regarding the type of device you use to access our website. This information helps us provide a better experience to our Members. The information we collect may include: the type of device, the operating system, device settings or identifiers for a device crash. You may check with the manufacturer of your device or software to learn more about the information your device transmits. We may also use third party services such as Google Analytics Demographics and Interest Reporting to obtain information regarding the use of our Platform.

ADDITIONAL FORMS OF DATA COLLECTION: COOKIES/PIXELS

Like most websites, mobile applications or other Internet applications, we (or our third-party service providers) may use "cookies" or "pixels" to improve your experience on our site. A cookie is a small data file that we transfer to your computer or mobile device's hard disk for record-keeping purposes. There are two types of cookies that are utilized:

A PERSISTENT COOKIE.

This cookie is utilized to save your login information for future logins to the Site. (This stores your login information but not your password).

SESSION COOKIE.

This allows us to confirm that users are logged in (they last until you close your browser) and to enable certain features of the Site, to better understand how you interact with the Site and to monitor web traffic routing on the Site. Unlike persistent cookies, session cookies are deleted from your computer when you log off from the Site and Service and then close your browser. Third party advertisers on the Site may also place or read cookies on your browser. You can instruct your browser, by changing its options, to stop accepting cookies or to prompt you before accepting a cookie from the websites you visit. If you do not accept cookies, however, you may not be able to use all portions of the Site or all functionality of the Service.

DISABLE COOKIES:

If you turn cookies off it will turn off some of the features of the site.
